3 Alpinists Believed Dead

One Climber's Body Still Sways from Rope

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland (A) The huge rescue operation for a group of Alpinists trapped on the north wall of Eiger Mountain was officially abandoned today.

The only survivor among the four climbers, Claudio Corti, of Lecco, Italy, arrived at the Eiger glacier station on a stretcher at 4

The 90 volunteers from seven nations who took part in the rescue operation were ordered off the mountain by rescue chief Peter Frei, who said the three other members of the group were undoubtedly dead.

Blizzards halted rescue operations Sunday afternoon and today after Corti had been lifted 1,200 feet to the summit by a brave Alpinist swinging at the end of a winch-operated cable.

Air and telescope observations of the other Italian trapped on the wall, Stafano Longhi, 44, also of Lecco, left no doubt that he died of exhaustion and exposure. His body may remain hanging there as long as the rope holds his weight.

No Race Now In Once-Hot National Loop

Milwaukee Pulls Away To 51/2-Game Bulge 'Big Four' Gets Credit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS There's a pennant race missing in the National League today and the chief suspects are Conley, Spahn, Burdette and Buhl.

Milwaukee's "Big Four and no more" has the Braves 51/2 games in front of a pennant scramble that is quickly changing from a riddle into a romp with no sign of a letup.

Lanky Gene Conley, veteran Warren Spahn, controversial Lew Burdette and strong-armed Bob Buhl . . . they have done it all in the Braves' two-week breakaway that has left the four other NL pretenders lagging in the dust. Since July 28, the Big Four has drawn 13 consecutive starting assignments and come away with 12 victories.

It was the rejuvenated Conley's turn Sunday and the 6-8 righthander, free again of his arm miseries, turned in a steady seven hitter as Milwaukee whipped St. Louis for its seventh straight 5-1, The triumph, coupled with Brooklyn's double defeat by Pittsburgh, Philadelphia's split with New York and rainout of Cincinnati's doubleheader with Chicago, opened up the once torrid National League

St. Louis, losing six straight, trails by 51/2, Brooklyn by 61/2, Cincinnati by 7 and Philadelphia

The Braves' lead now matches the New York Yankees' first place advantage in the American League. The Yanks went 5. up Sunday by defeating Baltimore 7-2 while runner-up Chicago split with Detroit, salvaging an 11-2 nightcap after losing 8-5.

In other AL games Boston won twice from Washington 8-5 and 4-3 in 11 innings, and Kansas City dragged Cleveland down to sixth place, its lowest standing in 10 years, with 7-0 and 9-8 victories.

Ken Boyer's ninth-inning homer deprived Conley of a shutout but he had long since wrapped up his fifth straight victory and his eighth in nine decisions snce his return to form.
